

Harry Hooge Elementary: Spring 2020

MORNING MOVEMENT (GR. K-7)

Maple Ridge - Pitt Meadows School District No. 42, in partnership with Maple Ridge Parks, Recreation & Culture, is offering a morning breakfast and recreation program for students at Harry Hooge Elementary School. Students will start the day out right getting in some physical activity before the school bell and having a healthy breakfast. The program will focus on physical activities that teach children fundamental movement skills through play. Students and recreation staff will co-create the morning sessions together. The program will provide a safe, fun, active and inclusive opportunity to set the students up for success in their day. Through play students are forming meaningful connections that improve their sense of confidence and belonging.

Monday – Friday, 7:30am – 8:30am

March 30 – May 22 (Session 1)

Registration fee: $50 per session
